Heading/Title

Introduction: State an interesting fact or make a funny remark to hook (engage) the reader.

Think of a few aspects to describe. This will act as the filling. Describe each aspect in a separate paragraph. Think of the describing words as the "sauces" that would add flavour to your story.

Lastly, your final paragraph would fit or match the information in the introduction. Add a few final thoughts about your topic.

Salt and Pepper: Check your punctuation and your spelling.
